ROADMAP TO RECONCILIATION 2.0

MOVING COMMUNITIES INTO UNITY, WHOLENESS AND JUSTICE

We can see the injustice and inequality in our lives and in the world. We are ready to rise up. But how, exactly, do we do this? How does one reconcile?

Based on her extensive consulting experience with churches, colleges, and organizations, Rev. Dr. Brenda Salter McNeil has created a roadmap to show us the way. In this revised and expanded edition, McNeil has updated her roadmap framework to incorporate insights from her more recent work. Roadmap to Reconciliation 2.0 includes a new preface and a new chapter on restoration, which address the high costs for people of color who work in reconciliation and their need for continual renewal.

With reflection questions and exercises at the end of each chapter, this book is ideal to read together with your church or organization. If you are ready to take the next step into unity, wholeness, and justice, then this is the book for you.

"This book continues to solidify Dr. Brenda Salter McNeil as a practical theologian and a prophetic voice of biblical reconciliation and justice. Her insights and wisdom within this resource are a powerful classroom of unifying principles and concepts. Everything she writes should be read and applied by people of faith that we might be a force of transformation in a broken and divided world."

EFREM SMITH, president and CEO, World Impact

"I consider Dr. Brenda Salter McNeil to be one of the great national communicators in the American church. She is the most qualified person I know to write about the topic of race and reconciliation. Her book is extraordinarily timely."

M A C P I E R, CEO and founder, The NYC Leadership Center

"If your church or ministry organization is ready to go deeper in your reconciliation journey, this book is for you!"

DOMINIQUE GILLIARD, author of Rethinking Incarceration
