Creating a Legacy of Inductive Bible Study

Since the publication of the first LifeGuide® Bible Study (LBS) Genesis in 1985, InterVarsity Press has been striving to create accessible Bible studies for individuals and groups.

In 1982, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship staff member Jack Kuhatchek and IVP editors Andy Le Peau and Jim Hoover conceptualized what became LifeBuilder Bible Studies (soon after renamed LifeGuide® Bible Studies). The idea was to produce a quality series of Bible study guides that would be relevant and inductive, and appeal to both Christian students and laypeople in churches. The first seven studies were published in 1985, with a plan to have an LBS for almost every book of the Bible as well as numerous topical studies.

“Over ten million LifeGuide® Bible Studies have been distributed around the world since InterVarsity Press first started publishing them in 1985,” says Cindy Bunch, associate editorial director and LBS series editor. “They are designed to create conversation around Scripture passages. The discussion format is easy to lead, and the focus on a single chapter of Scripture allows everyone to enter the conversation, even those with little prior knowledge about the Bible. LifeGuide® Bible Studies create a context for God’s Word to speak into our lives today.”

Editors and authors include the late John Stott, J. I. Packer, Jack Kuhatschek, Dale and Sandy Larsen, Rebecca Pippert, Patty Pell, James Sire, Paul Borthwick and many others. With over one hundred titles currently in print, IVP has accomplished its original goal to cover the Old and New Testaments, Bible characters and major Christian themes.

In the most recent LifeGuide, Service, R. Paul Stevens looks at service in a variety of contexts, examining examples of service that were motivated by imagination, passion, faith, hope and love—from Genesis to Revelation. Out of these studies, you will discover how to live and serve wholeheartedly.

As Stevens explains in the introduction, “ministry is service to God and neighbor at the same time. Ministers are people who put themselves at the disposal of God for the benefit of others and God’s world. It is not limited by the place where the service is rendered, the function, the need met by the title of the person or even by an overt reference to Christ. In Matthew 25:31-46 the surprise of the righteous on the day of judgment is that the service done gratuitously for others was actually done for Christ, and the concern of the unrighteous was just this: if they had known it was Jesus they were serving, they would gladly have done it. So service and ministry are totally interchangeable ways of speaking of the same reality.” No matter what your profession, you are a full-time minister of Jesus Christ.
