Nathan Foster Signs with InterVarsity Press

Westmont, IL—InterVarsity Press has acquired Nathan Foster's first book, tentatively titled Lessons from the Trail: Mountain Adventures with My Father. Scheduled for release in 2007, the book will be part of InterVarsity Press's Likewise line of books.

A lifelong writer who frequently journals his experiences, Foster approached senior editor Cindy Bunch with the idea for a book that chronicles his time spent climbing mountains with his father, bestselling author of Celebration of Discipline and Renovaré founder Richard Foster. Bunch was immediately impressed, stating that Foster has "just the kind of ability to write narrative and transparent voice that characterizes our Likewise line." Richard Foster will contribute the afterword to the book.

Does the son of an internationally revered Christian leader have spiritual struggles and doubts? Apparently so. And Foster does not shy away from expressing them. Publisher Bob Fryling observes how the author "celebrates his own discipline of honest conversations with his dad in this beautifully narrated physical and spiritual journey. My hope is that this engaging book will intrigue readers and inspire them to 'go and do likewise.'"

Likewise books explore how faith can be lived out amid the confusion, pain and complexity of a constantly changing world, and are written by men and women who continue to question, hope and act. Likewise is an imprint of InterVarsity Press, an extension of InterVarsity Christian Fellowship/USA. InterVarsity Press serves those in the university, the church and the world by publishing resources that equip and encourage people to follow Jesus as Savior and Lord in all of life.
