

DON EVERTS is a poet, preacher and writer who works with university students in the Rocky Mountains. Don's writing is fresh, engaging and appealing. He writes in a unique and authentic way that frees readers to discover the importance and wonder of Jesus and Jesus' teaching. Since joining the staff of InterVarsity Christian Fellowship in 1994, he's spent a lot of time playing hacky sack and eating cheap pizza.

Getting Your Feet Dirty:
A Down-to-Earth Look at Following Jesus

Looking into the experiences of the earliest Christians from Acts 2, Don Everts describes how this dramatic wave of converts arose and overwhelmed the world. In this follow-up to Jesus with Dirty Feet, he tells their story—what they believed, felt and accomplished—and what it all might mean for Christ's disciples today.

The Truth, Upright

Misquoting Truth: A Guide to the Fallacies of Bart Ehrman's Misquoting Jesus

TIMOTHY PAUL JONES, 176 PAGES

AVAILABLE JULY 2007

“What good does it do to say that the words [of the Bible] are inspired by God if most people have absolutely no access to these words, but only to more or less clumsy renderings of these words into a language?”

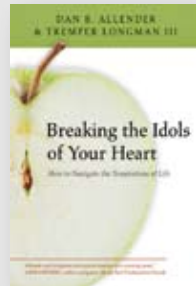

So contends Bart D. Ehrman in his bestselling Misquoting Jesus. In Misquoting Truth, Timothy Paul Jones challenges Ehrman's assertions one by one as he rebuilds the case for the reliability of the Bible as a historical record of Jesus and early Christianity. He explains the ins and outs of copying the New Testament, why lost Christianities were lost, and why the pure Christian message continues to captivate us to this day.

BREAKING THE IDOLS OF YOUR HEART
How to Navigate the Temptations of Life

Dan B. Allender & Tremper Longman III

Like the Teacher of Ecclesiastes, we run hard after significance. Chasing power, relationships, pleasure, work or money, we come to nothing. Dan Allender and Tremper Longman help us identify these “idols” by taking us back to the wisdom of Ecclesiastes: Only the life lived before God truly bears fruit.

192 PAGES, AVAILABLE JULY 2007

HARVEST OF HOPE
Stories of Life-Changing Gifts

Kay Marshall Strom

Kay Marshall Strom wanted to know if “gift catalogs” through companies like Partners International actually help needy people. She wanted to see if they do. Harvest of Hope is Kay’s account of her eye-opening expedition around the world. She shows how these catalogs have brought cows to Cambodia, dug wells for villages in North Africa and fed orphans in Senegal. She invites us to sow for a harvest called hope—for those who need it most.

THE WAY IS MADE BY WALKING
A Pilgrimage Along the Camino de Santiago

Arthur Paul Boers

Foreword by Eugene Peterson

Mennonite professor Arthur Paul Boers describes his month-long journey on the Camino de Santiago in Spain, a classic pilgrimage route to the ossuary of St. James. Along the way, Boers discovers a paradigmatic concept he calls “focal living,” a way of living as a true part of one’s social and ecological context.
