

Table of Proper Lessons in Canonical Order.

THIS table lists the proper readings from The 1662 Book of Common Prayer: International Edition in their canonical order. Included here are the Sunday first lessons for Morning and Evening Prayer, the epistles and gospels for Holy Communion (or Ante-Communion), and a few other readings that are found in the baptism and ordination services. The readings from the deuterocanonical books listed in this table are found between those from the Old and New Testaments.

This table is helpful for any person wanting to know when a particular passage will appear in the course of the year. Note that it does not include the contents of the Table of Lessons for the daily offices (pages xxxiv-lvii). Those lessons are meant for sequential reading, and cover the canonical and deuterocanonical books more systematically than do the readings in this table, which tend to be arranged thematically.
