Frame of Reference

Biblical Maturity:

Every InterVarsity staff member is to be an active disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ and obedient to the Scriptures. The marks of a long-term love relationship with Christ in the fullness of His Spirit are key. "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control." (Galatians 5:22)

Teamwork:

In a mission extension of the local church where community is important, the ability to serve as a member of teams both at InterVarsity Press and in the field is critical. Likewise, the ability to work in a collegial and open environment based more on values, relationships, and vision is more important than structure or position.

Values:

The New Testament is clear that the major priorities of a follower of Christ must include a growing commitment to Jesus Christ, to the Body of Christ, and to the work of Christ in the world. We are called into a personal relationship with Jesus, placed in a new family (the Church), and given a new purpose as ambassadors of Christ's grace and truth in every aspect of life. The work of Christ in the world includes carrying out the evangelistic mandate, participating in the work of proclamation, healing, serving and extending the work of his Kingdom in response to the Great Commission. As a result, InterVarsity is committed to developing all God's people--both men and women--from many diverse cultures and backgrounds as we pursue the call of God in the student world. See InterVarsity's Employee Handbook: The Seven Ministry Values (p. E4).

Purpose:

InterVarsity Christian Fellowship's purpose has changed very little since its inception in 1942.

In response to God's love, grace and truth:
The purpose of InterVarsity Christian Fellowship/USA is to establish and advance at colleges and universities witnessing communities of students and faculty who follow Jesus as Savior and Lord:
growing in love for God,
God's Word,
God's people of every ethnicity and culture and God's purposes in the world.

Said less formally, InterVarsity's purpose is to establish witnessing communities of students and faculty in the realm of higher education in the U.S. This purpose is admittedly far more limited than the Great Commission. As a mission extension of the local church, we have adopted self-imposed limitations on our activities based on our sense of call to serve a subset of God's people. We will always live in the healthy tension between God's wider purposes in the world, and our call to focus primarily on the university world, one subset of those purposes.
