BOOK DETAILS

“The plethora of global involvement opportunities today are sometimes overshadowed by the magnitude of need and the uncertainty of where to dive in. . . . This series covers personal issues (understanding God’s call), spiritual foundations (spiritual warfare, worship) and implementable tools (partnership, justice) that serve as catalysts to help every reader take the next step toward effective engagement in the work of Christ’s kingdom.”

—Paul Borthwick, author of Western Christians in Global Mission and How to be a World-Class Christian

Spiritual Warfare in Mission
978-0-8308-3464-8

Veteran missionaries Mary Anne and Jack Voelkel expose the dynamics of spiritual warfare in the work of missions and equip readers to take practical, prayerful steps toward spiritual triumph.

Mary Anne Voelkel and Jack Voelkel are longtime missionaries with Latin America Mission (LAM). They pioneered a university ministry in Colombia that is a member of the International Fellowship of Evangelical Students (IFES).

Your Mind's Mission
978-0-8308-3461-7

Greg Jao addresses common myths that result in a passive engagement of our intellect with our faith. He provides key disciplines for Christian discipleship of the mind—how we can love God with our minds in community, obedience and humility.

Greg Jao is a national field director for InterVarsity Christian Fellowship/USA. He is a contributor to Following Jesus Without Dishonoring Your Parents, a book on Asian American discipleship.

The Mission of Worship
978-0-8308-3462-4

Sandra Van Opstal argues that culturally diverse worship practices create a space for us to encounter the mission of God. Such a missional approach to worship, she promises, will renew the church’s vision and witness, proclaiming that the kingdom of God is here, accomplishing reconciliation, justice and shalom.

Sandra Van Opstal is director of worship for the Urbana Student Missions Conference. She also serves on the national leadership team for InterVarsity’s Latino ministry LaFe.
