IVP Releases Expanded Version of
Strengthening the Soul of Your Leadership

Ruth Haley Barton invites us to an honest exploration of what happens when spiritual leaders lose track of their souls. Each chapter includes a spiritual practice to ensure your soul gets the nourishment it needs. Forging and maintaining a life-giving connection with God is the best choice you can make for yourself and for those you lead.

This expanded edition includes a flexible six- or twelve-week guided experience for groups and the popular “How Is It with Your Soul?” assessment for leaders. Barton writes, “These questions and categories are not meant to produce guilt, shame, or a sense of failure. Rather, they are intended to help you be honest with yourself and with God about the state of your soul. This kind of truth seeing and truth telling is a first step toward ensuring that you find your soul rather than lose your soul in the context of kingdom ministry.”

Sample assessment questions include

I am tired—not just physically but spiritually and emotionally. I don’t really know how to get rested.

ALWAYS  OFTEN  SOMETIMES  RARELY  NEVER

I am aware of an underlying irritability and restlessness just beneath the surface of my life.

ALWAYS  OFTEN  SOMETIMES  RARELY  NEVER

I do not have time for attending to my human needs—exercise, eating right, getting enough sleep, doctor’s appointments and medical procedures, picking up dry cleaning, getting the car washed, making home repairs, etc.

ALWAYS  OFTEN  SOMETIMES  RARELY  NEVER

I find myself hoarding energy—avoiding people in the grocery store, holing up at home or in my office—for fear that routine social interactions will rob me of that last bit of energy.

ALWAYS  OFTEN  SOMETIMES  RARELY  NEVER

“We don’t have to choose to be either exhausted activists or isolated contemplatives, and Strengthening the Soul of Your Leadership offers both biblical vision and time-tested rhythms to help us become contemplatives in action. Leadership does not require losing our souls. Thank God! This book will help you live into this good news.”

Ruth Haley Barton, Author of
Strengthening the Soul of Your Leadership

Ruth Haley Barton (Doctor of Divinity, Northern Seminary) is founding president and CEO of the Transforming Center, a ministry dedicated to strengthening the souls of pastors and Christian leaders, and the congregations and organizations they serve. For over twenty years, she has ministered to the soul care needs of pastors and leaders based upon her conviction that the best thing we bring to leadership is our own transforming selves.

Trained at the Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation and the Institute for Pastoral Studies Loyola University Chicago, Ruth is a seasoned retreat leader and spiritual director. A sought-after speaker and preacher, she has served on the pastoral staff of several churches and teaches frequently at seminaries and graduate schools.

Ruth is the author of numerous books and resources on the spiritual life, including Invitation to Solitude and Silence, Sacred Rhythms, Longing for More, Pursuing God’s Will Together, and Life Together in Christ. She continues to share her thoughts and perspectives on soulful leadership through an online resource called eReflections as well as a podcast entitled Strengthening the Soul of Your Leadership.

“Ruth Haley Barton has dedicated her life to distilling the wisdom to be found within these spiritual disciplines that position us to be strengthened and renewed at the level of our souls. Her guidance has been indispensable in the body of Christ at large, but also in particular to my colleagues and me at IJM.”
