

DETAILS

At the Feet of Jesus

A Guide to Encountering Christ in the Gospels

April 29, 2025 | $18.99, 120 pages, paperback | 978-1-5140-1053-2

An Invitation to Sit and Experience the Presence of Jesus

“Can we meet Jesus in real time—a personal encounter that is no less real than that which the first disciples had with Jesus? Are we merely talking about Jesus and reading about how the first disciples knew Jesus and heard his voice and dwelt in his love? Or can we, in like fashion, know Jesus and the grace of his immediate presence in our lives, no less so than those disciples? Here is the guide to precisely that: an experience of prayer that is no less immediate than that of Mary of Bethany.”

—Gordon T. Smith, executive director of Christian Higher Education Canada and author of Your Calling Here and Now

At the Feet of Jesus isn't just another book about prayer. It's a guided adventure into the heart of the gospel story, inviting you to step into the lives of some of Jesus' closest friends—Mary, Martha, and Lazarus. Picture yourself sitting at Jesus' feet in faith, just like Mary did, or finding hope and love in his presence, just as Martha and Lazarus experienced. At the Feet of Jesus makes these timeless stories come alive, offering you a chance to experience Jesus' love in a profoundly personal way.

At the Feet of Jesus was written to bring you into a deeper, more intimate relationship with Jesus, transforming your daily routine into a spiritual retreat.

Perfect for:

- A weekend group retreat
- Three Sundays of solitude
- A small group guided study
- Relearning how to pray
- A free hour while the kids nap

Bruce Hindmarsh, DPhil (Oxon), is the James M. Houston Professor of Spiritual Theology and professor of the history of Christianity at Regent College in Vancouver. He is a fellow of the Royal Historical Society and a past president of the American Society of Church History. Bruce teaches the history of Christianity and spiritual theology, and he speaks often to lay audiences as well as preaching in his own church and elsewhere. His previous books include The Spirit of Early Evangelicalism and Amazing Grace.

Carolyn Hindmarsh, DMin (Fuller Seminary) teaches New Testament Greek and spiritual theology at Regent and is a trained spiritual director. An experienced speaker, retreat leader, and spiritual director, Carolyn completed her Master of Theological Studies degree in Spiritual Theology at Regent College, studied Benedictine spiritual accompaniment in Rome at the Collegio Sant'Anselmo, and received training in leading the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises through the Martin Institute and the Jesuit Institute South Africa.

Krista Clayton, author interviews
800.843.4587 ext. 4013 or kclayton@ivpress.com

ivpress.com/media

BIO

At the Feet of Jesus

A Guide to Encountering Christ in the Gospels

April 29, 2025 | $18.99, 120 pages, paperback | 978-1-5140-1053-2

Husband and Wife Transform Routine into Spiritual Retreat

*“Convinced that we are made to see the face of God, Bruce and Carolyn Hindmarsh invite us to join them for a prayer retreat. What a privilege it is, as we take the place of Mary of Bethany, looking up in contemplation at our Lord. This immensely practical book centers on Jesus, encouraging us to use our memory and imagination, so that in him we may enter more deeply into the presence of God. The mature result of many years of spiritual guidance, At the Feet of Jesus is a sure guide for making your own personal or group retreat.”*

—Hans Boersma, professor at Nashotah House Theological Seminary in Wisconsin and author of Pierced by Love

Bruce Hindmarsh (DPhil, Oxon) is the James M. Houston Professor of Spiritual Theology and professor of the history of Christianity at Regent College in Vancouver. He is a fellow of the Royal Historical Society and a past president of the American Society of Church History. Bruce teaches the history of Christianity and spiritual theology, and he speaks often to lay audiences as well as preaching in his own church and elsewhere. A former staff worker for Youth for Christ and founding director of Camp Cedarwood, he is an active lay member of an Anglican church in Vancouver.

His articles have appeared in respected academic journals such as Church History, The Journal of Ecclesiastical History, and The Huntington Library Quarterly. His previous books include Amazing Grace and The Spirit of Early Evangelicalism, which won best History/Biography in the 2019 Christianity Today Book Awards.

Carolyn Hindmarsh (DMin, Fuller Seminary) teaches New Testament Greek and spiritual theology at Regent and is a trained spiritual director. An experienced speaker, retreat leader, and spiritual director, Carolyn completed her Master of Theological Studies degree in Spiritual Theology at Regent College, studied Benedictine spiritual accompaniment in Rome at the Collegio Sant’Anselmo, and received training in leading the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises through the Martin Institute and the Jesuit Institute South Africa. She is married to Bruce, and they have three adult children.

Krista Clayton, author interviews
800.843.4587 ext. 4013 or kclayton@ivpress.com

ivpress.com/media