

BIO

ivp Academic

A Woman's Place Is in the Story Seeing Women in the Biblical Narrative

August 25, 2026 | $24.99, 240 pages, paperback | 978-1-5140-1107-2

New from the Author of Nobody's Mother

Sandra L. Glahn (PhD, University of Texas at Dallas) is professor of media arts and worship at Dallas Theological Seminary, where her emphases are first-century backgrounds related to women, culture, gender, and the arts. She has authored or edited more than twenty books, including Nobody's Mother, Vindicating the Vixens, and Sexual Intimacy in Marriage (coauthor).

Also by Sandra L. Glahn:

Nobody's Mother: Artemis of the Ephesians in Antiquity and the New Testament

October 10, 2023 | $25.99, 200 pages, paperback | 978-1-5140-0592-7

Does "saved through childbearing" in 1 Timothy 2:15 mean that women are slated primarily for rearing children? Sandra Glahn thinks that we have misunderstood Paul and the context to which he wrote. Combining spiritual autobiography with new research on the Greek goddess Artemis, Glahn lays a biblical foundation for God's view of women.

Praise for Nobody's Mother:

"Mining an impressive wealth of research, including artifacts, Ephesian inscriptions, and literature from the likes of Homer and Pliny the Elder, Glahn makes an exacting case that Paul's words described a 'specific time-bound situation'—debunking interpretations tying women to childbirth and barring them from church leadership for subsequent generations. It's a rigorous and much-needed reassessment of a passage long used to silence women in the church."

—Publishers Weekly Starred Review, July 2023

"What a clear and compelling explanation for one of the most unclear passages in Scripture! This eye-opening book evaluates all the available evidence—literary, archaeological, and biblical—to help us better understand not only the historical context of Paul's words but also how the spiritual worth of a woman is not tied to the physical state of motherhood. Glahn's own story of infertility will encourage women in the modern church just as powerfully as her argument reframes women in first-century Ephesus."

—Beth Allison Barr, James Vardaman Professor of History at Baylor University and author of The Making of Biblical Womanhood: How the Subjugation of Women Became Gospel Truth

Karin DeHaven, senior publicist kdehaven@ivpress.com or ivpress.com/media

ivp

ivpress.com/media